INSTANT ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

Entente Allies Intend Forcing Greece to Act.

DESIRE DEFINITE POSITION

Entire Military Policy in the Near East, Including the Dardanelles, Is Expected to Be Made Clear Within the Next Few Days.

London, Nov. 19.—The attitude of the entente allies toward Greece, from which country they are endeavoring to get a definite guarantee for the safety of the French, British and Serbian troops, and the whole military policy in the Near East, including the Dardanelles, is expected to be made clear before the end of the present week.

The council at Paris, in which British and French cabinet ministers took part, came to important decisions and Earl Kitchener, looking over the ground both in Gallipoli and the Balkans, is to report on the best means of dealing with the situation arising out of the Austro-Serbian and Bulgarian successes in Serbia and Greece's leanings toward the central powers.

It transpired in a debate in the house of lords that General Sir Charles Monro, the recently appointed commander-in-chief in the Dardanelles, already has given his opinion as to what should be the future policy with regard to the Gallipoli campaign and Lord Ribblesdale, who introduced the subject, said he understood that the report of the general favored withdrawal. The Marquis of Lansdowne replied that the report and the evidence accompanying it was not considered sufficient to enable the government to come to a conclusion.

The statement had hardly been made when the war office issued an account of a successful British attack on the Turkish trenches on either side of the Krithia Nullah, which led to the belief that Lord Kitchener, who is on the peninsula and who went out after General Monro's report had been received, had decided to persist in the operations.

Andrew Bonar Law, the colonial secretary, assured the house of commons that the decision would be left to the military experts and the question of the loss of prestige would have no weight.

As to Greece it is reported in dispatches from Rome that immediate action will be taken and no delay will be tolerated. It is said that Italy will take an important part in the forthcoming developments. The action will naturally depend upon the attitude which King Constantine and his ministers assume toward the entente powers.

SERBIAN SITUATION GROWS MORE SERIOUS

London, Nov. 19.—The situation in Serbia grows more serious. The Austro-German armies, with the Bulgarians on their left, are pushing southward, driving the inferior Serbian forces before them, while in the south, the Bulgarians, reinforced by men and guns from Von Gallwitz' army, are pressing on toward Monastir, from which town they are said to be only a few hours' march.

There is some uncertainty as to the Serbians' line of retreat.

Some dispatches say they are falling back on Monastir, where there are British reinforcements, others that they are retreating on Ochrida, on the Southern Albanian frontier.

The French have inflicted a serious defeat on the Bulgarians on the Vardar river and it is unofficially reported that the British have had a success on the Valandovo front.

The big guns are continuing their lively bombardment in the west, while in the east there has been no change.

STORY COMES FROM OTTAWA

Colonel Roosevelt May Join Canadian Volunteers.

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—There is a story afloat here that former President Roosevelt may put into practical effect his strong espousal of the cause of the allies by personally volunteering for active service with the Canadian forces.

While, of course, no official statement could be obtained, it is learned from trustworthy sources that the idea of Roosevelt going to the Canadian forces is being seriously entertained in high quarters here, presumably as the result of the communications with the former president.

Senator O'Gorman is a member of the committee on naval affairs. He says: "The navy program will have the nation's support. We can no longer ignore the necessities which new world conditions have put upon us."

TEUTONIC FINANCES ARE CALLED SOUND

Berlin, Nov. 19.—A majority of the speculative engagements on the Berlin Stock Exchange having been settled during the last few months the stock exchange company has ordered the closing out of the remainder by the end of November and has published an official list of quotations as the settlement basis.

"These are the first official quotations issued on the Berlin Stock Exchange since the war began," says the Overseas News agency.

"They refute all stories invented by Germany's enemies concerning the breaking down of the nation's finances."

"The most interesting quotations are those of the German and Prussian 5 per cent loans."

"These are listed at 70, the same figure as in July of 1914. This shows the quotation of 55 given in London was purely fanciful."

"In a few cases German securities are listed lower than before the war."

PENROSE DENIES CANDIDACY

Asserts He Did Not Authorize Statement He Seeks Presidency.

Denton, Tex., Nov. 19.—Boies Penrose, United States senator from Pennsylvania, made the following statement about reports from San Antonio, Tex., that he will shortly announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the presidency:

"I have been mentioned for the presidential nomination next year, but there is no authority from me for the statement from San Antonio that my announcement is shortly to be made."

CANADA SEEKS $50,000,000

New Domestic Loan Will Bear 5½ Per Cent Interest.

Ottawa, Can., Nov. 19.—The Canadian domestic loan will be for $50,000,000, it is announced here. It will pay 5½ per cent interest and will be sold at 97½. The first payment will be made on Nov. 30 and will be 10 per cent. The next payment will be 7½ per cent in January, and 20 per cent each February, March, April and May 10.

FEE REPAYMENT IS ORDERED

North Dakota County May Collect
$10,000 From Former Official.

Minot, N. D., Nov. 19.—Ward county stands to collect nearly $10,000 from E. G. Warren, former county superintendent of schools, under a supreme court decision which reverses the district court.

BRITISH CAPTURE TURKISH TRENCHES.

London, Nov. 19.—Official announcement was made that the Fifty-second division had successfully attacked the Turks in the Krithia-Nullah defile, near the lip of the Gallipoli peninsula.

It captured 180 yards of trenches to the east of the defile and 126 to the west.

Priest Returns to His Church After Battle

This striking photograph was taken in the Champagne country after the greatest battle ever fought, a battle in which some 250,000 men were killed and wounded. The priest was driven out when shells burst over his head. He went back and the photographer caught him looking on his wrecked altar. The little church was not so famous as the cathedral at Rheims, which was bombed, but it was just as dear to the pastor and his smaller flock.

LATEST WAR NEWS

DISLODGE MENT OF SERBS SURE

(By United Press)

Vienna, Nov. 19.—The dislodgement of the Serbs from the strong positions occupied in the northern portion of the country, is a foregone conclusion. Indications favor their capture but they will probably make a final attempt to escape into Albania. The Serbs at present fight with the forlorn hope that reinforcements will arrive from the south. The German allies' operations have been hampered by bad weather involving the utmost hardships.

MONITOR AND CREW SUNK

(By United Press)

Berlin, Nov. 19.—Five thousand Serb prisoners were taken by the Germans, according to the Austro-Bulgarian statement. The sinking of a British monitor with the entire crew on the Tigris is reported from Constantinople.

The vessel sunk in the Tigris was one used by the British in the advance on Bagdad. Two British land attacks at the tip of Gallipoli peninsula is reported. One was repulsed but the other gained several Turk trenches.

RAID ON VENICE

(By United Press)

Rome, Nov. 19.—Another raid was made on Venice Thursday night by five Austrian aeroplanes, it is announced officially. Little damage was done.

ATTACKED BY AIR FLEET

(By United Press)

Berlin, Nov. 10.—The German air fleet attacked the British camp at Peperingh's west front, so the war office announce. Heavy artillery duels at Argonne continue.

ATTEND CONSISTORY VATICAN

(By United Press)

Rome, Nov. 19.—The passports of the Austrian-German cardinals will be issued by the Italian government enabling them to attend the consistory in the Vatican in December.

DEPARTMENT DELAYS ACTION

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 19.—The state department is delaying action against the Austrian consul Von Nuber and other Teutonic agents involved in conspiracies because the criminal prosecution of the guilty persons is preferred by the administration. The government has long had sufficient evidence to recall Consul Von Nuber.

RUMANIA'S PART IN WAR

(By United Press)

Rome, Nov. 19.—Rumania's part in war hangs on the decision of the cabinet council now in progress in Bucharest. Today's dispatches from the Rumanian capital report a meeting unexpectedly convoked by King Ferdinand to decide which side to take.

PROTEST TO AUSTRIA

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 19.—President Wilson and his cabinet have considered a form of protest to be made to Austria regarding the Ancona sinking. By next cabinet meeting it is hoped complete information will be available to begin drafting the note.

HORRIBLE TALE OF BRUTALITY

(By United Press)

Paris, Nov. 19.—Horrible tales of atrocities by Bulgars in accounts of brutality have been brought into Salonika by the Serbian refugees. The invaders butchered Serb prisoners. It is reported that hundreds of men were burned alive near Nish where they had taken refuge in the churches.

U. S. Biplanes in Flight

(By United Press)

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 19.—The first cross-country flight by the United States army aviation corps started when six modern biplanes left Fort Sill, Okla., for a 450 mile flight to Fort Sam Houston.

MYRON T. HERRICK.

Predicts Reunion of Divided Forces of Republican Party.

Causes that led to a split in the ranks of the Republican party in a large part have vanished and the forces are to be reunited, Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, told members of the Hamilton club in an address at Chicago.

"Republicans and Progressives have been patriotically inspired to forget the past and to join their energies for the better service of their country," he said.

LABOR MEN UPHOLD MILITARY TRAINING

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—The question of preparedness, coming up unexpectedly, was thrashed out before the American Federation of Labor with the result that a resolution protesting against the introduction of military propaganda in the public schools was voted down.

A final vote was not taken until President Samuel Gompers said he hoped the day-noon would come when the people of the United States would control the militia and the regular armed forces in the interest of peace, justice, democracy and humanity.

The session was marked by several demonstrations, biases coming from various parts of the hall when speakers on the platform were setting forth their views as to why the resolution should not be passed.

President Gompers said he is opposed to militarism, but that he would like to see the people, the farmer, the worker and the public in general, thoroughly trained and organized.

YOUTH MAKES CONFESSION

Discloses Work of Holdup Gang Operating in Montana.

Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 19.—Troy Noble, the Texas youth caught with other members of the Wallis gang, when the leader, Richard Wallis of Independence, was shot to death while resisting arrest, made a clean breast of his knowledge of the gang.

As a result John McDonald, Harry J. Smith and Noble have been taken to Chinook to face the charge of high-way robbery for holding up a resort there, robbing two women of $78 and getting cash and watches from seven men.

Sheriff Buckley of Blaine county was at Great Falls and heard the confession. He says Noble's confession is accurate in detail and the sheriff's description of the men wanted fits the trio alive as well as Wallis, the fourth member and leader.

McDonald was identified positively by another holdup victim in Valley county.

FEDERAL CONVICTION NO BAR

Can Be Prosecuted in State Courts for Same Offense.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 19.—Conviction and sentence and serving of a term in federal prison does not constitute former jeopardy and a bar to prosecution in the state court is the opinion of Attorney General Owen to District Attorney Jones of Waushara county.

Mr. Jones inquired whether a person who has been convicted and sentenced to the federal court for an offense against the federal government and who has served his term in the federal prison can subsequently be prosecuted by the state in a state court for the same act.

Attorney General Owen cites a long line of cases, holding that such does not constitute placing the man in jeopardy as prohibited by the state constitution.

GET VALUABLE INFORMATION

Chief of Bureau of Investigations Confers With Dr. Gorlick, Former Austrian Consul—Disclosures May Lead to Further Indictments for Passport Frauds.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Further investigation of the activities of Austrian Consul General von Nuber and his associates will be made by the department of justice as a result of a conference in New York between A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigations, and Dr. Joseph Gorlick, former Austrian consul.

A department statement announcing this also said that information had been obtained which probably would lead to further indictments for passport frauds. The announcement is as follows:

"Mr. Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigations of the department of justice, returned after his visit to New York during which he conferred with Mr. Rathbone, editor of the Providence Journal, and Dr. Gorlick.

"While Dr. Gorlick may not be able to testify directly to all matters much information of a valuable nature was obtained concerning the activities of the Austrian consul general, von Nuber, and his associates, the details of which cannot be disclosed at present. Prompt investigation, however, will be made.

"Information also was obtained which probably will lead to further indictments of passport frauds."

Dr. Gorlick recently charged in published statements that Austro-Hungarian consular service in this country, under the direction of Consul General von Nuber and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, carried on propaganda for fomenting strikes in munition plants.

Formal denial of all these allegations was made to the state department several days ago by the Austro-Hungarian embassy and this was followed by a dispatch from Baron Burian, Austrian foreign minister, authorizing Baron Zwiadnek, charge of the embassy, to make "categorical and official denial of these inventions."

COURTMARTIAL IS SCORED

Secretary Daniels Sets Aside Sentence
Passed on Lieutenant.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Secretary Daniels has clashed with the navy courtmartial which tried two commissioned officers and one warrant officer for responsibility for the fatal boiler explosion on the cruiser San Diego last January.

The court first acquitted the officers and then changed its verdict to hold Lieutenant K. L. Hill, in charge of the fireroom, guilty, with sentence to lose forty numbers, but with recommendation for clemency.

Secretary Daniels remitted the sentence and issued a statement declaring the verdict a miscarriage of justice.

STEAMER SERVICE HALTED

Passage Between Italy and America
Shut Off.

London, Nov. 19.—The correspondent in Zurich of the Central News forwards a report that it has been decided to suspend steamship service between Italy and America until arrangements are made to deal adequately with the menace of submarines to shipping in the Mediterranean.

Noted Naval Chaplain Dead.

New York, Nov. 19.—Rev. Father Henry Ironsides Reaney, chaplain in the United States navy, who was with Admiral Dewey in the battle of Manila, died in a hospital here of acute stomach trouble. He was born in 1863, when his father was commander of the old battleship Ironsides.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT MAY BE IMMINENT.

London, Nov. 19.—As a sequel to the report that a flotilla of twenty-five German torpedo boats and a big cruiser had passed Helsingborg, Sweden, Wednesday morning, proceeding into the Kattegat, a dispatch to the Central News from Copenhagen says that a British squadron of cruisers and destroyers had been seen entering the Kattegat.

What Made Her Pause.

Mrs. Boshyshehl heard that her ebou-lued cook, the pride and joy of the kitchen, was about to take another plunge into the matrimonial sea. So she decided to ascertain the truth of the report. "Mirandy," she said, "I hear it rumored that you are going to be married again, this time to Joe."
"No, I ain't gwine git married agin."
"Miss Lucy," replied Mirandy. "I kinda like Joe, but I ain't gwine marry him."
"What's the trouble?" asked Mrs.
Boshyshehl. "Ain't no trouble, Miss Lucy," said Mirandy, "but yo' see I done been married three times already, an', to tell yo' de truth, I'm aittin' mighty tired payin' out good money to dem undahkinks."

Felt Like One of Them.

"Tuther day," related old Dad Bing, the cattle baron, who is temporarily in our midst, "I was rambling along in a street car when a batch of young fellers not aboard. I judged they were college students by their funny clothes and queer shaped heads. The car was pretty full, and they pushed and short-ed back and forth in the aisle, tramping on people's feet and committing similar frivolities that a-way. Eimely they all raved back and fetched loose a long yell. Then the nearest one to me took a look at me and says:
"Well, my rural friend, don't you like it?"
"Shore, I like it," says I. "I'm half witted myself."—Exchange.

The World's Republics.

There are twenty-four republics in the world, including the republics and so called republics of Mexico, the Central American states, South American states, San Marino in the Pyrenees mountains, San Marino in the Apennines and Liberia in Africa as well as such republics as the United States, France and Switzerland. The oldest republic in the world is San Marino, in Italy, on the coast of the Adriatic, next to Monaco, the smallest state in Europe. It is supposed to have been founded in the fourth century.

Conventionality is a Tyrant.

There is little doubt that one of the most oppressive, injurious, detestable forces in the world is the force of conventionality, that instinct which makes men judge character and an action not by its beauty or its merits, but by comparing it with the standard of how the normal man would regard it, writes Arthur C. Benson. This vast and intolerable medium of dullness, which penetrates our lives like a thick, dark mist, allowing us only to see the object in range of an immediate vision, hostile to all originality, crushingly respectable, that dictates our homes, our occupations, our amusements, our emotions, our religion, is the most ruthless and tyrannical thing in the world.

Widows' Caps.

Who do widows wear caps? This is one of the things that every woman does not know. It is not because caps make them look pretty and interesting. It is because when the Romans were in England they introduced the custom of shaving the head as a sign of mourning. Of course women couldn't let themselves be seen with bald heads, so they made themselves caps.

So, though the hideous custom has passed, the caps remain.—London Answers.

WOMAN'S REALM

CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Anniversary of Fifty Years of Wedded Life Celebrated Today by Mr. and Mrs. John Adams

PLIGHT THEIR VOWS ANEW

Rev. F. W. Hill, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, Officiating at Ceremony

Today is the anniversary of fifty years of wedded life by Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of 201 Kingwood street, Brainerd. This afternoon at five o'clock will occur the celebration of their golden wedding in the new home which has just been finished for them. Their children and grandchildren from near and afar will gather with them to celebrate this notable event. At this time the aged couple will renew the solemn promises made a half century ago. Rev. F. W. Hill, pastor of the Brainerd Methodist church, officiating. A program has been arranged of congratulation and song intermingled with the reiteration of memories of bygone days. There will be an elaborate wedding banquet followed by toasts, etc., and a general good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams are two of the most amiable and lovable people of this city. They have a sweet-kind manner which has been mellowed and sweetened with the richer experiences of life. They are devoted Christians, kind neighbors and true friends. They hold the respect and esteem of all who know them. The eventide of their life finds them free from care and worry and enjoying the sunset of right living. May the evening glow be prolonged and their last days be their brightest is the wish of their many friends.

A full account of both the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Adams appears in "The History of Clay County, Iowa," from which the following is taken:

John Adams was born in New York City, March 25th, 1836. He was but four years of age when the family moved to the Keystone state where he received his education. He was fifteen years of age when in 1852 the family moved to Clinton county, Ia. Here he attended the Dewitt school and was identified with the agricultural interests of the state until the outbreak of the Civil War when his patriotic spirit was aroused and he enlisted in 1861 as a member of Company A, Ninth Iowa Volunteer Infantry under the command of Captain Grips. His regiment was first under fire at Pea Ridge, Arkansas. He participated in numerous skirmishes and in the siege of Vicksburg where he was taken prisoner for thirty-eight days after which the city surrendered. He took part in the battles of Black River Bridge, Chattanooga and Lookout Mountain and later went into Alabama and was with Sherman on his famous march to the sea and the capture of Atlanta. He also participated in the capture of Savannah and Columbus. Although often in the thickest of the fight Mr. Adams was fortunate enough never to have been wounded nor to lose time from sickness. His regiment marched to Goldsboro, Petersburg and on to Richmond; thence to Washington where Mr. Adams participated in the grand review, the most celebrated military pageant ever seen on the western hemisphere. It was a gala day in the history of the nation. Over Pennsylvania Ave. was a broad banner bearing the words: "The only debt which our country cannot pay is the debt which she owes to her soldiers." Thousands of people lined the streets of the city and Mr. Adams with the victorious army had the honor to march in parade down the streets and before the grandstand before the president of the United States reviewing the troops. After three weeks spent in Washington the regiment to which Mr. Adams belonged was sent to Louisville, Ky., where they were mustered out in August, and he was honorably discharged at Clinton, Iowa, on the 25th of the same month.

Prior to the war Mr. Adams had bought a farm in Clinton county and here he brought his bride, Miss Kate Varner, whom he married on the 19th of November, 1865. She was born in Spencer county, Indiana, Feb. 10th, 1846, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Varner of Clinton. For sixteen years they resided on the Clinton county farm and then moved to Clay county where they purchased a large farm which they made their home for years. At length his unremitting diligence brought him success and in 1901 he left the farm and removed to Everly, where he purchased a home, comfortable, attractively furnished and most hospitable. His farm is rented and he receives therefrom a substantial income. Last year they moved to Brainerd and are now making their home with their son Carl of this city.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Adams have been born five children who are yet living: Carl, engaged in the lumber business in this city; John, in the lumber business at Peñabone, N. D.; May, the wife of H. E. Barto, a druggist of Fairmont, Minn.; Pearl, the wife of A. R. Ogilvie of Edmore, N. D., and Effie, the wife of George Mumm, of Steele, N. D.

MAUDE PRATT CRANE

Little Falls Transcript Writes of Reader Who is to Appear in Brainerd Nov. 26

Little Falls Transcript: Maude Pratt Crane of Minneapolis will appear at the Brainerd opera house on the evening of November 26 in the symphony concert. Mrs. Crane will be remembered by many Little Falls people by reason of her having appeared here some years ago in a private program rendered by Mmes. La Bar, Atherton and herself, at which time she rendered several whistling solos.

After the death of her husband several years ago Mrs. Crane took up dramatic work in addition to her singing and whistling work and now furnishes entire programs of entertainment. "Ann of the Green Gables" and "The Music Master" are some of her dramatic specialties. In the former she has appeared 19 times in Minneapolis alone. She has rendered programs at many cities other than those named.

They Like Music

Two Crosby young men, both ardent lovers of music, while passing the Workers hall last Friday evening were attracted by a violin selection being rendered by one of the Euterpean concert company. The hour being late and the two not being "dotted" up they jumped upon a table outside just high enough to allow them to get an earful at the window. All went well until the table broke and they fell with a crash. The old saying "Tom, Dick and Harry" covers the case, only Tom was not there. —Crosby Courier.

Food Sale

The ladies of the First Baptist church will have a food sale Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20th, at Slipp-Gruen-hagen's store. All kinds of good things to eat will be for sale.

MORAL INDIFFERENCE.

If ignorance and passion are the foes of popular morality it must be confessed that moral indifference is the malady of the cultivated classes. The modern separation of enlightenment and virtue, of thought and conscience, of the intellectual aristocracy from the honest and common crowd is the greatest danger which can threaten liberty.—Henri Frederic Amiel.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Mrs. Charles Weyerhaeuser a Prominent Vocalist, Husband Deeply Interested in Brainerd

Brainerd and Little Falls are now bound by ties of friendship, of musical life and also in business associations of deep value.

Mrs. Charles Weyerhaeuser, who sings in Brainerd at the Brainerd Musical club Saturday afternoon, has favored Brainerd audiences before. She has a voice of remarkable sweetness and purity of tone. Mr. Weyerhaeuser occupies a prominent place in the minds of Brainerd people, as he is largely interested in The Northwest Paper Co., which is about to construct a $300,000 pulp and paper mill in the city.

It is accordingly with more than ordinary interest and attention that Brainerd Saturday greets the wife of so prominent a man in the business world and it marks further the cementing of pleasant relations with Little Falls, sister city of Brainerd.

Big Chances Both Ways.

The famous physician and the eminent clergyman were deep in a discussion which threatened to become acrimonious.

"You see," said the minister sarcastically, "you medical men know so much about the uncertainties of this world that I should think you would not want to live."

"Oh, I don't know," responded the physician caustically. "You clergymen tell us so much about the uncertainties of the next world that we don't want to die."—Exchange.

STOMACH ACTS FINE! NO INDIGESTION, GAS, HEARTBURN, ACIDITY

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sick, Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain, unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas, causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Adv.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Mrs. J. B. Johnson, 1824 Oak Street Visited by 22 Ladies and Happily Surprised

An operation in a hospital and a siege of illness and then days spent at home unable to be out in the bright out-of-doors; such was the lot of Mrs. J. B. Johnson, 1824 Oak street, until Wednesday evening when 22 friends, neighbors and members of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church visited her in a body and presented her with a purse. A luncheon was served and the visitors cheered up Mrs. Johnson and when they left her she was wreathed with smiles and has been smiling every hour since.

Preacher Was Laid Up

Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: "For three months I suffered intense pain in the kidneys and back which at times laid me up entirely. I used one and a half bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and all the pain disappeared. I felt as if 20 years had been added to my life." Relieves rheumatism, backache, sore muscles, stiff joints. H. P. A "Heart to Heart" Talk From The Brainerd Symphony to The People of Brainerd

A little more than six months ago the idea occurred to us to organize an orchestra. The idea was not as large as the result of it, as it was impossible to estimate the assortment of talent available.

In a very short time the orchestra assumed assuring proportion as well as ability.

The festival of music given in May this year was the beginning and we can hardly refer to it as a small one.

The most important detail was to learn the interest such an undertaking would create.

Last May we were compelled to sell tickets from door to door in order to get an attendance.

We succeeded in securing a very good attendance but are unable to judge from it just how many people are with us in developing and maintaining one of the best orchestras in the state and worthy of the name Brainerd Symphony.

Now then to speak in plain unmistakable language it is up to you—as it was up to us last May. There will be no tickets peddled.

Tickets will be on sale at Dunn's Drug Store at 10 a. m., Wednesday morning, Nov. 23, as is customary with all first class attractions. We are optimistic and believe that the attendance at each concert will surpass that of the previous one.

Your presence at the first concert of the season will be a manifestation of interest on your part and merit on ours.

Signed

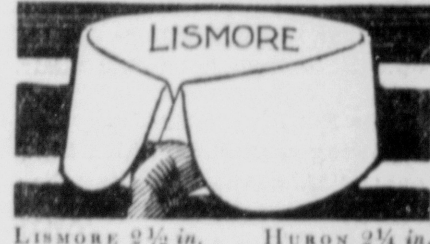

The Brainerd Symphony Orchestra

Careless Driving.

As motorcars multiply in numbers it is evident that increasingly careful driving is called for. The driver who "hits her up" endangers not only his own safety, but the safety of other motorists. There are drivers who fail to slacken speed when they come to cross streets. There are drivers who dash around corners or across a boulevard at high speed. It cannot be too strongly emphasized that the really competent driver always has his car under control; that he always drives on the theory that every other driver may be careless or may lose his head. Caution marks the competent driver. Recklessness belongs only to the jay.—Kansas City Times

Turkey prices are going up as Thanksgiving day approaches, but on Thanksgiving day turkey will go down, according to the Little Falls Transcript. Yes, unless it gets so high that the return trip can not be made in time.

Would you believe that 300,000 persons in the United States are addicted to the use of drugs if the president of the New York Medical-Legal society told you so? Well, that's what he says, and a man in his position ought to know something about it.

The slaughter of wolves is about to cease, at least the state auditor has notified county auditors throughout the state not to pay any more bounties and to send in at once all claims on hand as the fund for that purpose has dwindled from $10,000 to $2,300 and no more will be available until next August.

Isaac Stephenson, in his political autobiography just published, reveals his political career in an interesting manner, his one complaint being that he didn't get his money's worth. Stephenson's millions, made in the lumber business in northern Wisconsin, seem to have been public property and Isaac himself tells the story in a very simple although interesting manner.

Dr. Haiselden throws a hot shot at the high-brows who are criticizing his action in neglecting to save the life of an infant at birth who was a cripple and a mental defective by stating that "I would heed them more if they adopted children instead of poodles," and adds that Chicago might better turn its condemnation upon its great volume of criminal operations than upon this affair.

The Elk River Star News made the following suggestion which is a good one: "About the first thing the next legislature ought to do is to provide for maintainers on good roads. After a good road is built the next thing to do is to keep it up properly or the initial expenditure is practically lost. What we mean by a maintainer is not a man to overlook several miles of road and get over the thoroughfare once a month, but once a week and fill up the holes before they get big."

THE MOST SERIOUS BALKAN DEVELOPMENT

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

Action by Great Britain and France in holding up Greek shipping in their ports is the most serious Balkan development that has occurred since Bulgaria's declaration of war. It is either an application of force by the Allies, to influence Greek public opinion, or it is a preliminary defensive measure, due to a belief that King Constantine intends to enter the war on the side of the Teutons.

In principle the joint embargo of the two western nations is the same as a declaration of war against Greece. It will not be so considered by the Greek government, however, unless Constantine has definitely resolved to throw in his lot with that of his imperial German brother-in-law. But the effect may be to make Constantine more stubborn in his limitations of Greek hospitality to the Allies and to alienate sympathy for the Allies among the wealthy Greek commercial classes, who will suffer because of the new interruption to international trade.

If the embargo is not stronger policy, it may for these reasons end in serious disadvantage of the Allies. It is probable, however, that Great Britain and France are arranging concerted measures to follow upon injury done to Greek shipping. The visit of the four leading members of the British government to Paris, accompanied by their naval, military and diplomatic advisers, unquestionably has been caused principally by developments in the Balkans.

By what means, however, further pressure can be exerted on Greece by the Paris conference, it is difficult to see. The work before the allied statesmen is to find a substitute influence for that which would be exerted at Athens by a victorious Anglo-French army operating in Serbia and Bulgaria.

Only comparative small bodies of allied troops are in the Balkans. Their operations have been trivial and the future outlook cannot be immediately reassuring, since the Allies are now trying to obtain Constantine's consent to a retreat. Neutral nations, actuated wholly by self-interest, do not frequently put their trust in retreating armies. The work of the Paris conference, therefore, will be particularly difficult.

AUSTRIA MAY BE TAKEN TO TASK

Washington Awaits Details of Ancona Sinking.

OPEN BOATS NOT SUFFICIENT

Officials State That Placing Americans in Frail Craft on the High Seas Is Not Regarded as Taking Them to a Place of Safety.

Washington, Nov. 19.—While the United States will wait for the Austrian reply to Ambassador Penfield's inquiry concerning the circumstances under which the Italian liner Ancona was sunk it was stated officially that the placing of Americans in small boats on the high seas was not regarded as "taking them to a place of safety" within the meaning of the term as used in international law.

In its correspondence with Germany over the Frye case the American government expressed the view that open boats do not constitute a place of safety.

This was broadened by an official interpretation to apply to American citizens whether traveling on belligerent or neutral ships.

Officials qualified their assertion somewhat by stating that if a vessel were destroyed within a few miles of shore lifeboats would be regarded as safe, but that weather conditions and the opportunity given for passengers to be transferred even then were pertinent circumstances.

From these intimations it generally was believed the American government will develop the entire question of submarine warfare further in correspondence with Austria and that even though, as the Austrian admiralty has asserted, forty-five minutes was given for the passengers and crew of the Ancona to be transferred this was not regarded as affording American citizens a sufficient opportunity to be saved.

DR. GREIL MAKES AFFIDAVIT

American Woman Tells of Sinking of the Ancona.

Washington, Nov. 19.—An affidavit from Dr. Cecile L. Greil, the only known American survivor of the Ancona, has been received at the state department.

Dr. Greil gave some details of the submarine attack on the Ancona, but did not clear up entirely the question of the vessel's alleged flight.

The affidavit was secured in a hospital at Bizerta by an American official sent from the consulate at Marceilles. It is the first official information from an American source received by this government and may become the principal basis for action by the United States.

Mrs. Greil's affidavit described the panic on the Ancona and asserted shells were fired by the submarine while passengers were disembarking.

GERMANY SUPPLIED FUNDS

Charge of American Government Regarding Furnishing Ships.

New York, Nov. 19.—An allegation that the German government appropriated $750,000 to charter and load a fleet of steamships which cleared from New York early in the war to supply German cruisers operating in South American waters will be made by the government at the coming trial of Karl Buecz, according to United States District Attorney Snowden H. Marshall.

It is said the government will try to show that the operation of the supply ships was directed to a great extent by an official of the German government, who still is in the United States.

Buecz, who formerly was German consul general here and is managing director of the Hamburg-American line, is accused of violating the customs laws and neutrality of the United States.

London, Nov. 19.—Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty and chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, in the uniform of his regiment, has left for the front. His wife bade him farewell at the railroad station, where he passed unrecognized on the platform as he waited to enter a special car.

PLEADING FOR MAIL SHIPS

Move Is Begun to Restore Parcel Post Service to Germany.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19.—Dr. C. J. Hexamer, president of the National German-American alliance issued an appeal that petitions be sent to President Wilson and members of congress urging them to do all they can to have the United States furnish ships to transport parcel post mail to Germany, Austria and Hungary.

EMPEROR OF GERMANY.

Why, From a Legal Standpoint, There Is Now No Such Title.

There is no such person now as the emperor of Germany, and there never has been so far as a Prussian king is concerned. Further, there is a reason why such is so. It is no mere quibble over the form of a name.

Emperor of Germany was a title assumed by Rudolph, count of Hapsburg, in 1273. By the pragmatic sanction of 1552 the title, then held by Albert II., was confined in perpetuity to the house of Austria. This succession came to an end in the person of Francis II., who after his crushing defeat by Napoleon resigned his title of emperor of Germany and took that of emperor of Austria, 1806. At the same time Austria withdrew from the leadership of the Germanic states, and Prussia, once a mere fief of Poland, stepped into the position. That movement, however, was gradual, entailing many other changes, and it was not till 1871 that the new German confederation completed its dream by the king of Prussia becoming German emperor.

William I. imagined then and continued to imagine to his dying day that he had a right to the older title, but his march would have none of it, and his mandate, German emperor, became law. The reason was obvious, the emperors of Germany being the representatives of the ancient empire of the west, the Holy Roman Empire, a position impossible to the Lutheran descendant of Brandenburg electors. Moreover "emperor of" meant, as in Russia it still means, sovereign lord absolutely of land and people.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Where the Turkeys Come From

THE great bulk of the turkey crop of general consumption on the Atlantic seaboard is produced in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan and Iowa. The adjacent cent states of Missouri, Kansas, Tennessee, Arkansas and Minnesota also contribute shares, but to a smaller extent. This supply is termed "western," a portion of which is "dry picked," while the remainder is scalded to enable the ready removal of the feathers. The latter presents the better appearance before cooking, but the former is plumped up and becomes attractively smooth and of unbroken skin surface under the influence of the heat needed in its preparation for the table. All choice or fancy turkeys and other poultry are dressed "dry picked."

There are several sources of production of ultra superior turkeys, for each of which it is claimed that it holds the palm of excellence. As the reputation for luxurious living in this country began in the south, it will be well to commence with a description of the rice-fattened birds of Maryland. They are distinguished for delicacy of flesh and flavor which are imparted by their exclusively rice diet, and their skin is remarkably white, as compared with that of other poultry, which is also attributed to the character of feeding.

There are certain epicures who will partake of no other turkeys while "Maryland rice feds" are procurable. The next in order is what is designated as "Philadelphia," and this embraces turkeys, chickens, fowls, geese and ducks. Pennsylvania has been occupied by a thrifty class of German immigrants, who early provided good poultry, especially in Bucks county of that state, which furnished the supply of the citizens of Philadelphia.

Visitors to that city, attracted by the excellent poultry with which they were served, substituted for "Bucks county" "Philadelphia," and so it has become the term for all varieties of Pennsylvania poultry sent out of the state.

Northward progression of the description of famous poultry next halts at Rhode Island. There the pouterers have selected the largest of the cultivated strains, which attain the weight of twenty-five to thirty pounds the first year and fifty pounds and upward the second year. Massachusetts has its claim to the production of high class poultry also on file, and to turkeys it adds geese, of which in New York, where all qualities and standards are passed upon and determined, the excellence is conceded.

Large size, tenderness of flesh, palatableness of flavor, are all included, and, though Rhode Island, Philadelphia and Maryland each and all insist that their geese cannot be excelled, the city epicures decide for Boston's claim by their insistence for that supply to the limit of its extent.

The Story Needed Confirmation.

"George, did you know that I was going to marry your sister?"

"Well, I heard her say so, but she's had that idea about so many other fellows that I didn't feel sure about it till you told me."—Exchange.

STUDYING CONVICT LABOR.

Road Construction in Southern States by Prisoners Subject of Investigation.

Highway construction by state prisoners in the southern states is the subject of an investigation which the national committee on prisons and prison labor and the graduate highway department of Columbia university have jointly undertaken. Convict road work in the north was similarly treated last year.

The possibility of employing the mis-demeanant in road work is also under investigation at the present time. When the three studies are completed the prison committee will be in a position to afford accurate and scientific information to all those attempting to direct convict road work, no matter in what section of the country their work lies or what type of convict they are called upon to handle.

The southern study is being conducted by James Wilnot, civil engineer, who has been in charge of convict road gangs in Louisiana and other southern states and is familiar with both the southern convict and the southern road.

The need for good roads in the agricultural districts of the south is admitted.

CONVICTS ENGAGED IN ROAD WORK.

ated by all, while already in Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina and other states it has been demonstrated that the convict can be a most useful factor in procuring these roads. Up to the present time the work has been hindered by the faulty legislation under which it has had to be developed and the weakness with which even this legislation has been administered.

The convict has to a certain extent benefited by the healthy outdoor work and the fact that he is trained in work in which there is a constant demand for laborers and in which it is easy to obtain employment upon release. Up to the present time wage has not been paid the prisoner for his work on the roads in any of the southern states or in any state but Iowa. The popularity of convict road work has seemed to lie in the fact that it is a cheap means of securing good roads through the exploitation of the prisoner.

The national committee on prisons and prison labor holds that the value of the prisoner's labor is the same as that at which free labor can be secured to do the same work and that only when this wage is paid will convict labor be efficient labor.

Mr. Wilnot's study will include careful investigation of the labor cost for this work, as well as of the different systems of control, and on this scientific data the committee will base recommendations which it is hoped will lead to the efficient development of convict road work in the southern states.

Course of the Moon.

The moon is erratic in its motions. The cause of the failure of astronomers to make the moon amenable to their exact mathematical laws of gravitation, is believed to be some attractive force of which we are at present ignorant, though in all probability one factor is the true shape of the earth, which still awaits accurate determination.

FASHIONS IN THE JUNGLE.

Even Savage Natives of South America Like to Be in Style.

Trade development is a fascinating study. I recall a voyage up the Paraguay river when I made the acquaintance of the Guarani Indian women, brave and industrious and the most accomplished head balancers on the globe. It is quite the usual thing for a woman to carry a basket on her head filled with five struggling turkeys and three chickens while she holds a youngster under one arm, a large bundle of firewood under the other, directs the progress of three children, lends a stubborn burro and smokes a long cigar.

One day I followed a bronze Hebe to her humble home by the river shore and saw her bring forth an American sewing machine and stitch away merrily. Her own garment consisted of a white creation resembling a sheet, worn Moorish fashion, but this new creation was to be a skirt in latest Buenos Aires style for little Maria, who attended the mission school and had never learned to smoke.

Women are the same the world over. In metropolis and hamlet, in brilliant court and forest wilds, they love adornment. Every woman covets the other woman's clothes. In Bogota, Colombia, the aristocracy wear Parisian and New York garments, but in the Atlatro river country the poor Indian girls have nothing but fiber bark skirts to wear. One of these maids of the wilderness paddled up to the frontier trading post last spring in her father's canoe and saw a corset and a pair of stockings in the window of the store. They returned home, and a week later the most advanced fashions were revealed to the dizzies of the jungle when the maid and her sister proudly paraded their native settlement with indigo blue corsets and bright red open-work hose neatly painted on their chocolate colored skin.—Harriet Chalmers Adams, F. R. G. S., in World Outlook.

KINDNESS.

It is easy to be kind. Kindness is indispensable to your relations with men. If you are not kind to a man, then you are hostile to him and you invite hostility in him.—Leo Tolstoy.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur here, and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

FARMERS HERE WEEK OF DECEMBER 14

Agricultural Extension Division of the University of Minnesota
Five Days Short Course

FARM WORK AND FARM LIFE

Course to be Crowded With Lectures and Demonstration Work of Great Interest to Farmers

Farmers from Crow Wing county are to occupy the stage of interest during the week of December 14th when the agricultural extension division of the University of Minnesota will hold a Farmers' Short Course for five days commencing Tuesday, December 14th. The program for the five days is crowded with lectures and demonstrations directly interesting to farm work and farm life. The leaders from the Agricultural Extension Division are C. E. Brown who will lecture on "Potatoes and Farm Crops;" N. E. Chapman on "Poultry;" W. L. Cavert on "Farm Management;" Charles Nelson on "Live Stock;" while Miss J. L. Shepherd will talk on "Child Welfare; Home Care of the Sick, Foods and Cookery." Through the co-operation of the Agricultural Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of Brainerd, the large vacant hall on the third floor of the Iron Exchange building has been placed at the disposal of the officers of the Federation of Crow Wing County Farmers' clubs where an exhibit will be made of all kinds of farm products as well as fancy work, bread, etc.

In writing about the short course, the director of the extension division says: "We urge that every farmer in the county plan to give each member of the family a chance to attend all the sessions. During the five days they can meet the neighbors and extension leaders and find out what each is thinking about."

A tentative program has been circulated throughout the rural districts soliciting the co-operation of every farmer. D. C. Henderson, president of the Federation of Farmers' clubs is titled as "The man who keeps things going;" Secretary E. E. Taylor as one who "Knows about Everything," while Mrs. F. Peabody, treasurer, "Pays All Local Bills." D. C. Henderson is chairman of the Farm Crops committee and "Boosts Seed Corn;" Mrs. A. J. Gafke, wife of the county agricultural agent, is chairman of the Home Economics committee and "Feeds the Crowd."

Lectures and demonstrations will begin at 10 o'clock each morning and afternoon sessions at 1:30 o'clock. Work closes in time for the chores.

The Agricultural committee will offer prizes to the farmers of the county for exhibits of potatoes, corn, grains, hay and home cookery. A list of the classes and prizes are now being arranged and when finished will be circulated over the county. All lectures are to be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, while the exhibits will be made in the large hall on the third floor.

BOWLING SEASON ON

M. & I. Auditing Department Takes a Fall Out of the Operating Department of Road

The bowling season is on in full blast at the Club. S. P. Coffrain's headquarters on Front street. The M. & I. auditing department bowled the operating department of the road off its feet and bumped them hard, the final score reading 2161 to 2110.

With the scalp of the team dangling from their belts, the auditing department of the M. & I. has now issued a challenge to the whole world including the M. & I. with points north.

In last night's game the operating end was captained by Mr. Henry and his associate pin spillers were Messrs. Vaughn, Toohy, English and Daveau. The adding end of the column was commanded by Capt. Blake and his co-workers in wringing out the big end of the score were Messrs. Fay, Olson, Coutu, and Bradford.

Here is the score in detail:

	1	2	3	Total
Operating team	802	626	682	2110
Auditing team	727	667	767	2161

SWEDISH BAPTIST MINISTERS HERE

Ministerial Conference of Minnesota in Session at Swedish Baptist Church

ADDRESSED BY REV. A. B. COLVIN

The Program For Saturday—Fifty Ministers Now in Attendance at Meetings

The Swedish Baptist Ministers' Conference of Minnesota began its semi-annual meeting last night in the Swedish Baptist church. After a good song service the pastor of the Brainerd church, Rev. Alex B. Colvin gave a short address of welcome to the visiting ministers, welcoming them to Brainerd, to the church and the homes.

Rev. C. A. Lindahl, of Mankato, the president of the conference, responded in a pleasing address.

Rev. A. B. Nordberg, of Clear Lake, read the scripture lesson and led in prayer.

Rev. Paul Hallin, of Willmar, preached the sermon on the subject, "The Feeding of the Five Thousand." The sermon was full of thought and very interesting. Rev. Hallin is an eloquent speaker and held his audience greatly interested to the last.

Sessions have been held today which have been full of interest and helpfulness. The meeting tonight begins at 7:30. Rev. A. B. Pierson, of Karlstad, will preach the sermon. Rev. Pierson is a very eloquent and able speaker. Do not fail to hear him.

The program for tomorrow is as follows:

9:30 A. M.—Exposition of 2 Cor. 4:1-6. Rev. Sandell, D. D., St. Paul

10:30—"Shall We Arrange For a Two Weeks' Bible Course Instead of the Semi-annual Meeting?" Missionary E. Bjorkquist, St. Paul

Address.....Rev. A. Nelson, Isanti
"Are the Sacrifices in Following Christ as Great at Present as in Times Past?"

2:00 P. M.—Exposition of 2 Tim. 2:1-11. Rev. C. H. Ekblad, Red Wing

3:00 P. M.—Address, "The Dedication of the Young People to Spiritual Work." Prof. H. C. Wingblade of Minneapolis

7:30 P. M.—Song service, led by Rev. E. B. Peterson, Eagle Point
Sermon.....Rev. F. A. Peterson, Princeton

Come and hear these speakers. The general public is cordially invited. The program for Sunday will appear in Saturday's Dispatch.

ON INSPECTION TRIP

Prominent Northern Pacific Railway Officials in Brainerd on Special Train

Traveling in a special train of four business cars and a combination baggage car, prominent officials of the Northern Pacific railway company visited Brainerd at 11 o'clock in the morning. They left for International Falls.

They were on their annual fall inspection trip. In the party were W. P. Clough, chairman; J. M. Hannaford, president; George T. Slade, first vice president; E. A. Gay, assistant secretary, and J. M. Rapelle, general manager.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, give Fruit Laxative at Once

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advt.

CONVENTION HELD TODAY

District Sunday School Convention at the Presbyterian Church There Afternoon and Evening

A PROGRAM OF RARE MERIT

Evening Session This Friday Evening Will Have Address by a Sunday School Specialist

By taking copy as submitted to the Dispatch by Secretary Tracy of the district Sunday school convention, the Dispatch had a review of a Sunday school convention at the Presbyterian church printed before it happened.

The convention is in session today. All branches of the work were taken up and discussed along practical lines and plans were made for the coming year.

A large attendance of delegates and Sunday school workers is expected at the evening session tonight commencing at 7:45 o'clock. There will be special music. A feature will be an address by a specialist in Sunday school work. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Travelers Will Entertain

The local council of United Commercial Travelers, will open the winter season with a turkey banquet for the members and their families at 7 o'clock tomorrow night at Elks hall, followed by a meeting to organize a ladies auxiliary here at which Mrs. Ed Tisdale of Minneapolis, and others will preside. There will be an informal party following to which "the boys" have invited a number of guests.

Dancing will begin at nine and a most enjoyable time is assured.

All members and their families are especially requested to be present promptly at 7 o'clock for the banquet.

Dogs of War.

The Spartans and some other ancient used dogs in war, and probably this use was continued to the time of Julius Caesar if not later. Antony in Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," act 3, scene 1, says, "Cry havoc and let slip the dogs of war." The war dogs were cased in armor and wore spiked collars on their necks. The dog Kratim was the finest representative of his race as by Mohammedan mythology been admitted into the Mussulman heaven. Kratim was a dog endowed with the gift of prophecy and was the watcher over the slumbers of the Seven Sleepers of Ephesus. So that he also appears in Christian mythology.

Our Friend the Doctor

A doctor is a member of the greatest and most beneficent and unselfish of all the learned professions. We just at the doctors in our hours of health, but when disease seizes upon the strength of manhood, when even the mighty Caesar cries like a sick child, when the hour of pain is upon us, then, in the hushed chamber and by the lonely lamp of the watcher, we invoke the merciful ministrations of the doctor, and with willing feet he comes through the storm and darkness, and with skill and patience and courage he battles with disease and beats back death from the house of life.—Los Angeles Times.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Best

Tonight will be seen "The Man On the Box," from that widely read novel of the same name by Harold McGrath who is known the country over as one of our most famous authors. The picture tonight was produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Film Co. and directed by Cecil B. De Mille who needs no introduction with the movie fans of Brainerd. The following synopsis gives a very good idea of the play:

Lieutenant Bob Warburton, a fancy-free, adventuresome spirit, is wounded during an encounter with the Indians and taken to the home of Col. Annesley for medical treatment. Recovering, Bob finds that his service in the army has expired and he says he is flat broke. However, he is rich in romance and becomes fascinated by the Colonel's daughter, Betty. Betty, not knowing who Bob is, offers him a position as coachman, which he accepts. Becoming implicated in a plot to defraud the United States government of important plans, he thwarts the attempts of a Russian count and saves important plans. Betty's father loses his money; then Bob discloses his identity and admits he is the possessor of a large fortune in his own rights; however, the couple are married and live happily ever after.

Tomorrow, Saturday, matinee and evening will be seen that famous historic star, Frank Keenan, pronounced the greatest actor that ever appeared on Broadway, in that magnificent dramatization "The Long Chance," an absorbing story of a man's honor. Mr. Keenan appears in a character type that has made him famous, a gambler and "bad man" of the days '49 brave as a lion, tender as a woman, a strong enemy and a strong friend—with a code of honor all his own.

Coming on Sunday and evening will be seen the famous star of "The Spoilers," Wm. Farnum, in "The Nigger." Talk about fight, you should see Farnum in "The Nigger."

At the Empress

Essanay presents the great three reel drama entitled, "The Whirlpool," a story of love and honor, featuring the famous actress Nell Craig, and Warda Howard, produced by Fred Wright.

Selig presents the wonderful Jungle-Zoo drama in one act entitled, "The Master of the Bengals."

Another of those rip-roaring mirth-provoking "Ham" comedies comes to the Empress theatre. Fun? Simply crammed with it! It is "Ham at the Beach," and shows what befalls Ham and his partner in mischief, Bud, when the two, finding a roll of bills, go out to the seashore for some fun. They meet Fifi, an actress who is the soubrette with a tent show. Because Ham can lick Bud, he wins Fifi, but his little pal manages to buck Ham up against a roulette game and causes him to lose his money. This Bud grabs while the chauffeur of the game and Ham are engaged in a mixup. Seeing the little fellow in possession of the money, Fifi transfers her affections to him. Ham, chased by the gambler, takes refuge in the dressing room of the show of which Fifi is a member. What ensues will bring a storm of laughs. See "Ham at the Beach." If the weather has given you the blues. Tomorrow the great feature film, "Man's Law."

At the Grand

At their opening performance at the Grand Theatre last night, the Great Zartoons more than satisfied the audiences with the clever mind-reading and psychic work of the performers. Dr. Zartoon told one young woman that she would be married before the year was up and gave her the name of her husband-elect. He told a married man who inquired about his domestic affairs that he would be separated from his wife before the 28th of next month and that a woman had come between the couple and caused trouble. A school teacher was told that she would journey to San Francisco before Jan. 1 and that she would not travel alone.

Tonight with the Great Zartoons, the irresistible Marguerite Clark, appearing in "Gretna Green" will be presented for the first time. This picture has proven to be one of the big hits of the season and shows off the dainty little actress at her best.

The Zartoons will offer a new line of work at the Grand tonight and tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty will give their special matinee for ladies only. Men or children will not be allowed in the house at this time as the line of questioning will probably be very personal.

Coming to the Grand for Sunday is Dustin Farnum in that famous play, "The Virginian." The Zartoons will make their last appearance at the Grand tomorrow afternoon and evening. You should not miss them.

The Blue of Sapphires.

Star sapphires are generally of a grayish blue tint, and the star is exhibited in its greatest perfection when looked at by the light of the sun or a candle. The sapphire is found of all tints and shades of blue, but the color which approximates to the shade formerly called "bleu de roi" is the most valuable. A really fine sapphire should appear blue by artificial light as well as by day. This stone is found in crystals generally of much larger size than the ruby. The name sapphire is perhaps the only one which runs through all languages with very slight alteration—the Hebrew name sapphir, the Chalda sapirion, the Greek sappheiros, the Latin sapphirus, etc.

ROOSEVELT MAY GET NOMINATION

Hughes Only Possibility Whom Colonel Will Support.

FAIRBANKS' AIDS HOPEFUL.

Say Indiana Man Has Many Friends and Few Enemies—His Record Since Leaving the Senate Has Been Good. Roberts Would Use Chicago Naval Training Station as Naval Academy.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 19.—[Special.]—There is every reason to suspect that Theodore Roosevelt is looking forward to a possible nomination for himself at the next Republican convention. So far no one has been mentioned for the Republican nomination whom he will support with the single exception of Justice Hughes. And his followers do not all accept Hughes.

James R. Garfield, who was in Roosevelt's cabinet and one of his most devoted friends, says that Weeks, Burton and Fairbanks would all be objectionable to the Progressives. That eliminates quite a number of men at the beginning and men who for the most part are satisfactory to most of the Republicans. Whitman is opposed by Roosevelt, and it is supposed that he would not take kindly to either Borah or Hadley.

Fairbanks' Friends Hopeful. It is rather an interesting campaign which the friends of former Vice President Fairbanks are making for the Indiana man. They will see that he has the Hoosier delegation and quite a number of scattering votes. This nucleus will be held together during the ballots. Then it is expected that the Republican leaders will get together and try to decide upon the most available candidate. They hope that Fairbanks will be the available one. They claim for him that he has not aroused any antagonisms since 1901, when he left the senate; that he has kept his place in public esteem and is now ripe for the big office of president. One of the telling arguments made in favor of Fairbanks is that he would surround himself with a strong cabinet if he should be elected and would not attempt to be wholly a one-man power in the government and in his party.

A Sensible Suggestion.

Congressman Roberts is to be credited with a sensible suggestion relative to the proposed increase of the midshipmen for naval officers. The Naval academy will not accommodate 1,200 students, but, instead of crowding the present academy or building a new institution, Roberts suggests that the naval training station on Lake Michigan, near Chicago, should be used for the fourth or freshman class and the present academy at Annapolis used for the three upper classes. This would be a good arrangement for more reasons than one. In the first place, it would do away with all the "running" or hazing of the plebes. It would give that class an opportunity to get its bearings before taking up its course at the regular academy. It would also make use of the "training station," which has been a joke from its inception.

One of the Money Raisers.

Like Leader Kitchin, Congressman Oldfield of Arkansas is one of the men who must make provision for raising money. Therefore he has ideas about the preparedness program, and they do not accord with those of the administration. Oldfield is a member of the ways and means committee, and he will not consent to an issue of bonds for military purposes. He is for an "adequate" navy, but not a big navy, and he does not favor any increase in the army.

Parties Will Divide.

It is expected that the Republicans generally will support any plan of national preparedness which may be agreed upon. For the most part they are expected to criticize the program as inadequate. In fact, a number of men have already said as much. But they are to vote for whatever they can get in the end. That, I said, is the opinion of the Democrats.

But there may be an upset to this theory. Senator Norris of Nebraska says there will be strong opposition among Republicans to large expenditures for military purposes, perhaps not strong enough to defeat the plan, but at least strong enough to make itself felt. Thus it appears that the parties will be divided on this question.

His Campaign Material.

Senator Myers of Montana has good campaign material in the fact that he has stood by the president from start to finish, sometimes when it was doubtful whether he was in full harmony with his constituents. But it is said that this has not injured him in Montana. His party friends say that it will help him in his campaign for reelection next year.

Their Rooms Ready.

The house office building is almost like a big hotel. The members of congress, old and new, find their rooms ready for them as they come to Washington. Each man looks on a card and finds he has been numbered by the room clerk, and he gets his key. Quite a system they have arranged for the convenience of congressmen.

IMMENSE SHIPS FOR NAVY

Tentative Plans Are Being Considered by Officials.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Tentative plans are being considered, Secretary Daniels, said, for two 36,000-ton battleships to be included in the first year's part of the five-year building program congress will be asked to approve.

There are no warships so large afloat anywhere in the world. The largest ship ever designed for the American navy is the 22,000-ton craft of the California class, two of which were authorized last year and bids for which have just been received.

HUGHES NOT A CANDIDATE

Asks Nebraska Secretary of State to Keep Name Off Ballot.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Associate Justice Hughes of the supreme court has notified the secretary of state of Nebraska he would not be a candidate at the coming presidential primary election and requested that his name be not placed on the ballot.

Cabinet Tries to Quit.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Premier Castro of Portugal again proffered the resignation of the cabinet to President Machado, but the executive refused to accept, a Havas dispatch from Lisbon says.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphate hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
